

RESUME FOR M/S. REHEMA BAGUMA

First Names: M/s. Rehema Baguma
Years with Firm: 4 years with ICT Consults Ltd
Name of Firm: ICT Consults (www.ict.co.ug)
Profession: Inf System Consultant
D.O.B: 25.07.1976
Nationality: Ugandan
Years with Firm: Since its inception in 2001 (4 years)

Key qualifications / Fields of Expertise

Rehema Baguma holds a Bachelor of Library & Information Science degree, a Postgraduate Diploma in Computer Science and a Mascter of Science in Computer Application Technology. She is currently undertaking a Doctor of Philosophy in Information Systems at Makererere University, Kampala, Uganda. She is an Information Scientist & technologist by training and practice, She has worked as an Information Officer, Information & Communication Technology Officer & Information Technology Officer in various organisations before joining University teaching. She has also participated and contributed to ICTs for Development efforts targeting the most disadvantaged groups: rural & women groups. This includes the CEEWA-Uganda Women & ICTs Project whose goal was to explore ways & means of exploiting ICTs for Rural Development. She worked as an Information officer & later ICT Officer for this project which worked to built awareness & sensitization among rural women & men about the potentials of ICTs for small scale enterprise development through building awareness & sensitization, training in basic ICT skills and facilitating & providing access to information on market sources, market prices, affordable credit and grants, best practices in various trades etc. This project was funded by IDRC & later HIVOS.

Her training and work has involved mainly development, administration & management of IS/IT systems for various business groups.

She is a researcher in a Broad field of computer applications.

Summary of work experience

Rehema Baguma worked as an IT Officer with Oxfam GB, Uganda between 2004 and 2005. She was responsible for: LAN Administration (windows NT 4.0 server), Email system management (Lotus domino server 6.02), Internet service management for head office and 2 field sites, administration of desktops, telephones and radios (VHF & HF)'s hardware and software systems, development of in-house database applications, systems security, data back up, training and end user support service to staff in hardware and software usage & support to field offices through local IT staff.

She also worked as an ICT officer with CEEWA-Uganda between 2000-2001 responsible for administration of the LAN, organisation website, hardware and software systems, development of in-house database applications, systems security, head of IT equipment procurement, data back up, advising the organization on IT needs.

Between 1999 to 2000, she worked as an Information Officer on the Women & ICTs Project, CEEWA-Uganda where she was responsible for training staff, project beneficiaries on various IT applications, training women entrepreneurs on ICT skills and their application for enterprise development, searching for information and innovations on enterprise development from various sources including global sources i.e. the Internet and dissemination of the findings to the end users repackaged into simple formats, administration of the project website & administration & management of data back up.

She was a part time lecturer & Microsoft Certified Systems (MCSE) Instructor at the Institute Of Computer Science (now Faculty of Computing & IT) Makerere University in 2004. In 2005, She was appointed an Assistant Lecturer in the Faculty of Computing and IT, a rank she still holds todate. Her teaching has included the following subjects: client server & distributed computing, System administration & Information security policy & privacy. She is also an administrative board member of Women of Uganda Network (WOUGNET), which works to promote use of ICTs among women Organizations in Uganda. She is on the techie tips team, which sensitizes, trains, gives IT usage tips on both hardware and software issues and provides guidance and resources through online interactions to demystify and educate the public about ICTs and their applications for social and economic development.

Languages

English: speaking- excellent; reading- excellent; writing- excellent.

Educational record

- Ph.D in Information Systems, Makerere University Kampala, Uganda (on going) 2005 -
- M.Sc (Computer Application Technology), HUST, China
2003
- MCSE Certified
2003
- MCDBA Certified
2003
- MCP Certified
2003
- Postgraduate Diploma in Computer Science, Makerere University 2000
- BLIS, Makerere University
1999

Employment record

- Assistant lecturer, Makerere University Faculty of Computing and IT (2005 – Todate)
- IT Officer OXFAM GB-Uganda (2004 – 2005)
- Part time Assistant Lecturer, Institute of Computer Science (2003 – 2004)
- MCSE Instructor Makerere University (2004)

- ICT Officer CEEWA-Uganda (2000 –2001)
- Information Officer CEEWA-Uganda (1999 –2001)

Certification:

I, the undersigned, certify that to the best of my knowledge and belief, these data correctly describe my qualifications, my experience, and me.